As you head out of Monmouth you will go straight over a large roundabout then proceed up a long hill. At the top of this hill (2 miles) you will go under a Sandstone Bridge, you then need to take the Left Slip Road immediately after the bridge. This is sign posted for Wyastone, Ganarew and the Doward.

Follow the road over the Bridge and you will come to a small triangular road junction. Directly in front of you is a small Lodge House with Cast Iron Gates. Take the Road between the gates and follow the drive to the bottom of the hill. Take the left hand road between the Industrial buildings and come to reception in the converted stable building.

From Ross on Wye

If you are travelling from Herefordshire, Gloucestershire or the Midlands you will arrive at Ross on Wye on the A40. Continue on the A40 heading south towards Monmouth and South Wales.

After 7 miles you will pass the village of Whitchurch and then travel up a long hill. At the top of this hill you will go under a Sandstone Bridge, you then need to take the Left Slip Road immediately after the bridge. This is sign posted for Ganarew and the Doward.

After 200 metres you will come to a small triangular road junction. On your right is a small Lodge House with Cast Iron Gates. Take the Road between the gates and follow the drive to the bottom of the hill. Take the left hand road between the Industrial buildings and you come to reception in the converted stable building.

We are located at the back of the complex and you can either go to reception and ring for attention, or drive to the back of the complex, park and we have our entrance sign posted.
